EXPERIENCE

As a Discovery Attorney, Ms. Larson works with the firm's litigation teams to strategically analyze client documents for relevancy, responsiveness, and privilege as well as analyze documents from opposing parties to efficiently identify topics relevant to the case. She uses the knowledge gained from the document review to prepare witness kits for depositions and create privilege logs.

Ms. Larson manages document review projects by training review attorneys in the substantive legal issues relevant to the case and monitoring the team's progress by implementing quality check procedures to ensure quality work product. In addition, she coordinates with the firm's Ediscovery team to implement review strategies and techniques that increase efficiency and minimize costs to our clients.

Ms. Larson received a B.A. from the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, a J.D. from Hamline University School of Law and is a member of the MSBA and the MHBA.
