

2027 ANNUAL CONFERENCE SPONSORSHIPS

March 8, 2027 | 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. PT | Planet Hollywood Resort & Casino - Las Vegas, NV

The Conference of Tribal Lending Commissioners (CTLC) is a non-profit volunteer organization founded by and for American Indian tribes' financial services regulators and staff. CTLC offers professional development and training programs that range from basic examiner training and continuing education to compliance planning and management programs for tribal lending executives. CTLC is a forum for regulators to develop policy and enhance practices independent of the lenders they supervise and with consistency across the first nations. Through collaboration with government leaders, co-regulators, and industry participants, CTLC promotes the safety, soundness, and consumer protection of American Indian tribally owned financial services.

This conference is free to attend and will coincide with The National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development's (NCAIED) 2027 Reservation Economic Summit (RES 2027).

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Your contributions are valued - As a non-profit volunteer organization, we rely on sponsors and supporters to continue our education and outreach. In addition, your support and participation enhance our efforts. Through collaboration with government leaders, co-regulators, and industry participants, the CTLC promotes the safety, soundness, and consumer protection of American Indian tribally owned financial services. The industry relies on leaders and supporters like you to sustain itself and grow.

EXPOSURE

Attendance at the CTLC is by invitation only - This exclusive group includes tribal lending regulatory commissions, tribal leaders, online lending company executives and compliance staff, boards of directors, service providers to the sovereign lending community, financial services investors, regulators, and their advisors.

Significance - Our spring 2026 event hosted over 100 people representing numerous Tribal Lending Entities from across the nation. The conference focused on emerging trends in tribal lending and benefits CTLC's efforts to strengthen the regulatory infrastructure of the tribal lending industry.

SPONSOR BENEFITS

Improve your understanding - Our educational offerings are unrivaled in the industry. The leading experts in tribal law, economic development, and consumer finance regulation provide relevant and candid content designed for operators and regulators in the online lending space.

Enhance your relationships - The most important people in sovereign lending will be sitting in the same room with you—maybe the same table. Our interactive program, opportunities for sharing and supporting new contacts, and exclusive selection of attendees is designed for a comfortable and personal networking experience.

Support the industry - Supporting a compliant, collaborative, and future-focused industry environment is essential for its long-term viability.
